For Immediate Release

March 4, 2005

ROBBERY SUSPECT ARRESTED

Hampton police arrested Paris Lamont Brown, a 28 year old residing in the 900 block of Center Avenue in Newport News and served outstanding arrest warrants related to a robbery.

On September 11, 2004, at approximately 12:30 am, police responded to the 500 block of West Queen Street to investigate a robbery from person. The investigation indicates that the victim, a 27-year-old Poquoson resident, accompanied a female to the location to consume narcotics. While there, he was ambushed by two subjects and robbed of property and money. The victim summoned emergency medical personnel and received treatment of several injuries to his face and a broken nose.

Arriving officers apprehended Deontray Jermaine Lewis as he attempted to flee the scene. Detectives charged Lewis with robbery and obtained arrest warrants charging Paris Lamont Brown with robbery and felonious assault.

On March 3, 2005, the Division's Fugitive Apprehension Squad located Brown in the 600 block of Newport News and served outstanding warrants for robbery, felonious assault, distribution of cocaine, and a circuit Court capias. He remains in the custody of the Hampton City Jail.
